

ABOUT THE ART CENTER

We began in 1959 when Ruth Hardy gathered 15 artists and conducted the first community art classes at the old Village Clubhouse, the site of the present Community Center on Old 41 Road. As Bonita Springs has grown, we have kept pace providing opportunities for artistic expression, education and appreciation in a supportive and nurturing environment.

The Center for the Arts of Bonita Springs is the cultural heart of the community—offering a wide variety of classes for all ages. The campus consists of classrooms, two galleries, office spaces, a members' resource library and gift store. Members and artists offer their time and talents to bring a variety of outreach programs to local schools and social organizations. We host two National Art Festivals each winter—drawing talented artists from across the United States and around the world.

We provide year round programs in many disciplines for all who wish to learn, study or simply appreciate a wide variety of art and cultural events. We are a place for all seasons and all ages.

We hope you choose to join us and enjoy all we have to offer.
