Coronavirus Update

Updated March 11, 2020

Everyone here at the Centers for the Arts is dedicated to the health and safety of our patrons, members, artists, faculty, students and staff throughout both our campuses. We are closely monitoring developments around the Coronavirus (COVID-19) through the Centers for Disease Control, Department of Health, State of Florida our local government and other resources.

We’re taking extra precautionary measures by providing additional hand sanitizers and disinfectant wipes throughout our buildings, particularly in high traffic areas. Additionally we’ve asked our Facility Staff to increase the frequency of disinfecting commonly touched surfaces, including doorknobs, handles, handrails, doors, and counters. Per CDC recommendations, we encourage everyone to follow CDC guidelines for frequent handwashing, and have added reminder signage in these areas. And, in the interest of the health and wellbeing of everyone, we encourage those who feel unwell or may be at increased risk to stay at home.

We understand patrons and members are carefully considering ticket purchases for performances and events. To offer you as much flexibility as possible, we are happy to exchange your tickets for a future performance. You may contact us at 239 495 8989, or email us at cfabs@artsbonita.org if you need to exchange tickets for an upcoming performance. Tickets may also be returned for a tax-deductible donation.

At this time all concerts and events will take place as scheduled. As we move forward we’ll continue to make decisions with the most updated information available with our priority the health of our audience, artists, faculty, members and staff, implementing directed changes for a healthy and safe environment.

FAQ

What steps are you taking to keep audiences, artists, faculty and members safe?

We’re taking extra precautionary measures by providing additional hand sanitizers and disinfectant wipes throughout our buildings, particularly in high traffic areas. Additionally we’ve asked our Facility Staff to increase the frequency of disinfecting commonly touched surfaces, including doorknobs, handles, handrails, doors, and counters. Per CDC recommendations, we encourage everyone to follow CDC guidelines for frequent handwashing, and have added reminder signage in these areas. And, in the interest of the health and wellbeing of everyone, we encourage those who feel unwell or may be at increased risk to stay at home.

How are you tracking the virus?

We are monitoring the situation in our community and any updates from the Centers for Disease Control (CDC) Lee County, the Department of Health and State of Florida
Will any performances or events be canceled, and how will you let patrons and members know?

Your health and wellbeing are our priority. Should it be necessary to cancel a performance, event or class, we will notify all ticket holders / students by email and phone as soon as possible prior to the event / performance / class. Updates will also be posted on this page, and the website page listing that event or performance.

What are my ticket options if a performance or event is canceled?

The following options regarding your tickets are

- Exchange your tickets for another upcoming performance. We are happy to exchange your tickets for one of the many upcoming performances, based upon availability.
- Donate your ticket. As a nonprofit arts organization, the Centers relies on the audience we serve. By donating your tickets you’re providing vital support for our visual and performing arts programs that serve thousands in our communities. To receive your donation receipt, call our offices 239 495 8989; or email us at cfabs@artsbonita.org
- The Centers will refund tickets for any performances that are canceled. Please call our office 239 495 8989; or email us at cfabs@artsbonita.org if you receive a notice of cancellation and wish a refund.

Are there any current cancellations?

No